

Discover South Africa

Join Easy Tripping as we journey to South Africa to experience its rich culture, history and its people. We will immerse ourselves in cultural, educational and exciting tours and activities. City hopping from Johannesburg to Durban to Cape Town, you'll enjoy city tours, a safari, additional planned activities and excursions and of course time to explore on your own. Travel Dates are January 24th-February 6th, 2024. So grab your significant other, friend, coworker, parent or child and lets' go.

Your Journey includes roundtrip flights from Washington DC as well flights between South African cities, airport transfers, hotel accommodations, at least one city tour and a safari. Meals provided contingent upon tour provider. Not included are gratuities, travel insurance (which is highly recommended), tours and activities not included in your South African Tour.

Johannesburg

Known as the City of Gold, Johannesburg is the vibrant hub of South Africa where commerce and culture converge. It is also home to Soweto, South Africa's most famous Township. Soweto played a major role in abolishing Apartheid and was once the home to South African President Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu. You'll have an opportunity to learn more about this vibrant city and its historical figures during your journey.

Durban

Durban is the largest city of the Kwa-Zulu Natal province and home of the Zulu, the single largest ethnic group in South Africa. It is also home to the largest Indian population, outside of India. Durban is considered a notable vacation destination due to its popular Golden Mile of beach and promenade. With many cultural influences Durban will be sure to excite the average traveler. But if this isn't enough, your tour of the Hluhluwe Imfolozi Game Reserve will surely be the highlight of your visit to Durban.

The second most populated city in South Africa, Cape Town is known for its beautiful beaches, wine vineyards, Table Mountain, and many more notable attractions. Cape Town is also most noted to be the center of Cape Malay culture, which was once a racially segregated area where Indonesian as well as other South East Asians lived after being transported to South Africa as slaves. Here we will gain more historical knowledge of South Africa as well as enjoy additional cultural and engaging activities that this city has to offer.
